

HOUSE RULES + DOOR POLICY

Feeling unwell or unsafe?

Please go to our staff, they are here to help you.

The house rules are to ensure the safety and wellbeing for every attendee under the roof of Club Baggerbeest. This space is experienced differently by everyone and your behaviour will have an influence on others' experiences.

AGGRESSION

We do not accept any form of aggression, discrimination, exclusion, and physical and/or verbal harassment, - including - xenophobia, homophobia, transphobia, racism, sexism, colourism, ableism, ageism. Any activity of this nature will lead to immediate removal and possible further measures.

AGE

Minimum age for entry as a guest is 18 years. The door host and security have the right and ability to ask for identification. When not provided for whatever reason, your access will be denied.

ENVIRONMENT

Be considerate towards our neighbours, environment and other attendees when arriving, waiting, entering and leaving Club Baggerbeest.

INFLUENCE

Attendees unable to control themselves, visibly under the influence of substances or unwilling to cooperate with our staff, will be denied entry or removed from the space.

PROVISIONS

Bringing food and liquids into Club Baggerbeest is prohibited. Please, make the door host and security aware of anything that is required for medical reasons.

VISITATION

By entering Club Baggerbeest you agree to be searched. When you don't agree to be searched we withhold the right to refuse entry. When feeling uncomfortable being searched by a specific team member, we will provide an alternative according to your needs.

SMOKING

Smoking is only allowed at the designated smoking area on our courtyard. This includes e-cigarettes, vaporizer pens, regular tobacco and other smoke products. Smoking inside may lead to removal.

SUBSTANCES

Open use, possession and trade of illegal substances and weapons in and at Club Baggerbeest is prohibited. First responders will be contacted when considered necessary.

SURVEILLANCE

To ensure attendees' protection and our own staff, Club Baggerbeest uses camera surveillance in and around the premises.

LOST & FOUND

Club Baggerbeest can not be held responsible for lost items, although we do our utmost best to find lost properties. If you think you might have lost something, get in touch with proost@barbaggerbeest.nl with a detailed description of your item and a photo if you have one.